

ICMEE eWorkshop

Race and Education (Grades K-12)

Essential Question: What is the role of race in the classroom? What do I REALLY know about race and how can it help me become a better teacher?

Guiding Questions:

- Unit 1: When did you first learn about race?
- Unit 2: Where do racial disparities come from?
- Unit 3: What is racism?
- Unit 4: What terminologies and concepts help us understand race and racism?
- Unit 5: How does race and racism work in my classroom?
- Unit 6: Answer the Essential Question.

What is an eWorkshop?

Our eWorkshops are innovative online multi-media resources available free of cost to professional learning communities of educators who wish to collaboratively inquire into and improve their practice with bi/multilingual learners.

eWorkshops are inquiry oriented and are guided by an essential question and a guiding question for each of the six units in an eWorkshop. Each unit follows the same three-part learning cycle that we call Explore, Make-It-Work, and Share. In Explore participants spend 30-60 minutes exploring new ideas, content, concepts or perspectives. In Make-It-Work, participants are offered a minimum of two designed and completely supported options of how to make the new learning from Explore work in an actual classroom context. Make-It-Work takes around one hour of a participant’s time and always has a “You Make-It-Work” option, which gives participants the flexibility to design their own approach or tweak one of the options we offered. Finally, participants Share their learning either in our online space (a threaded discussion) or Face-toFace. Share usually takes 30-60 minutes of a participant’s time meaning that completing the three-part learning cycle of each unit takes about three hours. eWorkshop participants who complete all six units can receive a certificate of completion as well as use their work towards a course that will earn them one graduate level credit at the University of Nebraska Lincoln.
